GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Each academic year several Graduate Assistant positions are available for interested and qualified students. To be eligible to apply, a student must be fully accepted in a graduate program at Salem State College, carrying at least two graduate courses per semester or their credit equivalent. Additional academic requirements include: a minimum of a 3.0 average in the major field of study, a minimum GMAT or GRE verbal score of 500, and a quantitative score of 500 if the applicant's major field of study is mathematics or science.

There are three categories of assistantships: faculty research assistants, academic program assistants and Administrative Assistants. Faculty research assistants assist individual faculty with their scholarly work throughout the academic year. Academic program assistants provide service to academic programs such as the Writing Center during the tenure of their assistantship. Administrative Assistants provide administrative assistance to a college department.

Each full-time assistantship carries a monthly stipend and an award of tuition remission in all courses except directed study courses, courses by arrangement, and thesis courses. The stipend is for 10 hours a week rendered to the department to which the assistant has been assigned. The tuition remission is considered a financial resource in any Financial Aid award. For further information, contact the Graduate School at (978) 542-6323.

COURSE PRIVILEGES FOR STUDENTS OVER 60

The Graduate School has made the provision for students over 60 years of age to enroll in courses tuition free if space is available. For special programs, institutes and seminars, it will be necessary to pay the program fee. It will be helpful for eligible students to present proof of age at registration for prompt processing.

CORPORATE TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

Many area employers will reimburse their employees in full or in part for courses considered job-related. Students are advised to check with their employer’s personnel office for detailed information.

The Financial Aid Office is located in the Administration Building on the first floor.
